SORENSEN TO REPLACE SPENCER IN UM'S GRADUATE SCHOOL

MISSOULA --

Nancy Sorenson, chair of the University of Montana's Graduate Council, will be acting associate dean of UM's Graduate School, Ray Murray, dean of the Graduate School, announced today.

Sorenson, who is an associate professor of teacher education, replaces Don Spencer as associate dean of the Graduate School. Spencer, an associate professor of history, was recently named acting provost and acting vice president for academic affairs. He fills the vacancy left by Don Habbe, whom Commissioner Carrol Krause named as acting deputy commissioner for academic affairs for the Montana University System.

The new UM appointments follow the December resignation of Robert Albrecht, who has taken a job with the University of Colorado System in Boulder.

Sorenson, now in her sixth year of teaching at UM, specializes in reading and language arts. She hails from Bemidji, Minn.
